Dear LACLJ Supporter,

I am humbled and extremely grateful for the incredible supporters who have responded to the current pandemic by making a gift in support of survivors.

Your generosity is helping families navigate remote court hearings, new visitation challenges, and find some level of peace of mind in the midst of so much uncertainty. Because of you, survivors are safe.

The past five months have been challenging to say the least, and as we look ahead, so much work is still left to be done in our communities.

But I want to take this moment and send my deepest gratitude for your continued support of survivors. Our Board and Staff appreciate you. And the survivors whose lives have been changed are forever impacted by your thoughtfulness and generosity.

I also want to thank the companies and foundations below who are standing by survivors and supporting their freedom from violence. Together, we are building a community of support for survivors.

Thank you!

Warmly,

Norayma Cabot
Executive Director

LACLJ recently received a $100,000 2-year Unrestricted Operating Support grant from the Weingart Foundation to support our programmatic, operational and financial goals. The Foundation's grant will help fund LACLJ's service model, as well as key initiatives to achieve our strategic plan goals, including the continuation of our diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives. We are so proud to continue our partnership with a foundation dedicated to promoting equity and justice in our communities. Thank you, Weingart Foundation!

We are grateful to the California Partnership to End Domestic Violence for their generosity and response to LACLJ's needs during the current pandemic.

LACLJ received a $44,582 grant to purchase equipment that will allow our staff to continue to safely work from home and provide remote services to survivors throughout Los Angeles County. Thank you, CPEDV!

Last month, LACLJ received a $20,000 grant from an Anonymous Fund of the Orange County Community Foundation. Thanks to this donor's generosity, survivors will have access to free legal representation so they may seek justice, safety and protection. Thank you!

Thank you to the Association of Certified Family Law Specialists Charitable Foundation for awarding LACLJ a $10,000 grant to fund free family law legal services to low-income survivors of domestic violence. We are excited to partner with you in uplifting our communities in need.

Special thank you to our COVID-19 Response Fund sponsors!
