2022 SPONSORSHIP PACKET

Securing Justice Empowering Survivors

The mission of the Los Angeles Center for Law and Justice (LACLJ) is to secure justice for survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault and empower them to create their own future. Since 1973, LACLJ has provided legal services to communities that face multiple barriers to accessing justice.

Impact

At the close of services, LACLJ clients indicate they have less fear and depression, have better relationships with their children, and are more closely connected to loved ones and community.

Who We Serve

- 100% are Low-income
- 83% are Women
- 80% are Latino/Hispanic
- 72% are Immigrants
- 63% are Parents of Minors

Domestic Violence

To protect the safety of survivors and their children, attorneys help survivors obtain favorable restraining and custody orders.

Sexual Assault

Attorneys help survivors navigate the criminal justice system and understand their rights so they can be empowered in court.

Immigration Relief

Attorneys help families pursue survivor-based immigration relief so they can start their path to legal status and financial stability.

Supportive Services

Social workers assist survivors with safety planning and linkages to other community resources that support their well-being.
