LACLJ Welcomes New Board Member

NEW LACLJ BOARD MEMBER

EVE SHEEDY

LACLJ is excited to welcome Eve Sheedy to our Board of Directors!

Eve has decades of experience working with and advocating for survivors of domestic violence. She is the former Executive Director of the Los Angeles County Domestic Violence Council. In that capacity, Eve worked with survivors of domestic violence, public agencies, nonprofits, policy makers, and others to improve the County's response to domestic violence.

Eve's decades of work in the domestic violence field are highlighted by her success at addressing the connection of domestic violence to other issues including child welfare, public health, homelessness, gang violence, gun violence and workplace violence.

She is an active member of the California bar and has practiced law in the areas of criminal defense and prosecution, civil litigation, first amendment and privacy.

We are excited to bring Eve's experience and expertise to LACLJ and work with her to best serve survivors of domestic violence in our community!
